

ILM NVQ Certificate in Team Leading Level 2

A Blended Learning Programme from Longden

This practical blended learning programme is designed for team leaders with a degree of authority for managing resources, looking to motivate their team members as well as achieving agreed outputs. The NVQ gives learners the opportunity to develop the core competencies needed by team leaders in today's busy and demanding world.

How it works

- Initial assessment and induction
- Two full day workshops
- Three half day assessments at your workplace
- Online learning and support
- Over a 4– 6 month period
- Gain Affiliate membership of the ILM
- Gain access to Harvard Business Modules

Funding may be available. Please ask.
